North Hollywood Bar Bouncer Sentenced in Man's Death

A former bouncer at a North Hollywood bar was sentenced today after pleading no contest to involuntary manslaughter last month for punching a man who fell into traffic and died, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office said.

Ernest Shawn Reyes (dob 7/21/82) of Arleta was sentenced to three years of formal probation, 180 days in county jail and 240 hours of community labor.

Reyes punched Wilfredo Rodriguez, 47, outside of a bar in the 6300 block of Lankershim Boulevard on Dec. 15, 2016, prosecutors said. As a result, the victim was knocked into the street and fatally struck by a vehicle.

Deputy District Attorney Nathan Bartos prosecuted case LA084995.

The Los Angeles Police Department, West Valley, investigated the case.
